The Daily Bulletin.

TUESDAY, JULY 4, 1882.

The next issue of gold coinage from the Mint in London will bear the impress of Her Majesty from a new die. This is the second die only, which has been taken during the reign of Queen Victoria. It represents the features of the Queen as she is seen at present, and depicts her wearing the Imperial crown.

The Nawab-Iqbal-ud-Dowlah arrived at Plymouth from India lately in the P. and O. steamer, with a suite of more than a dozen persons. The Nawab's first experience of English manners was rather unpleasant. At the Custom house, on the usual questions being asked, one of the suite admitted to their having one box of cigars, which was described as being opened and in-use, but when the baggage came to be examined, lo and behold! there were three large boxes in one of the trunks. A false declaration having been made, the cigars were seized and declared forfeited to the Crown.

CHICAGO, June 17.—A special despatch says: Dr. Jules Crevaux and a party of seventeen men who were engaged in exploring the northern tributaries of the river Platte, have been killed by the Obuh Indians, in Bolivia.

St. John's, N.B., June 17.—The French fishing schooner La Syrene of Miquelon, sank on the 10th and took down her whole crew with her, numbering 17 persons. The scene of the disaster was on St. Peter's Bank. The vessel was deeply laden with salt and salted codfish. Her starboard bow was pierced by the stroke of a heavy "ice-growler," and she sank without a moment's warning.

New York, June 17.—The Star's special from Heart's Content, N. F., of the 16th says: The missing boat of the foundered steamship Perie, containing the boatswain and 10 of the crew, was picked up by a schooner which arrived here yesterday, 32 miles from Cape Race. The men had been rowing toward land for 14 hours and were nearly exhausted.

LONDON, June 17.—The Government, with the approval of France and Turkey, has determined to protect the Suez Canal with the British troops. Transports have accordingly been ordered ready for embarkation.

LONDON, June 17.—The police made a raid on a stable in Clerkenwell, London, and seized 100,000 rounds of ammunition, packed in boxes, ready for removal to Ireland. Four hundred rifles, with bayonets, and 25 boxes of revolvers were also captured.
